

UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

JANUARY 9, 1962

UPI-65

STATINTL

(RELEASE AT 6:30 P.M. EST)

(CIA)

WASHINGTON—A WASHINGTON WRITER WHO HAS TRAVELED OVER MUCH OF THE WORLD HAS WRITTEN A BOOK TITLED AS THE INSIDE-THE-SCENES STORY OF CIA, THE NATION'S CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY.

IT FORMALLY GOES ON SALE TOMORROW, BUT ALREADY IT HAS DRAWN CRITICISM AND CONTROVERSY.

ANDREW TULLY TITLED HIS WORK: "CIA: THE INSIDE STORY."

ALLEN W. DUNN, WHO DIRECTED THE AGENCY FROM 1953 UNTIL JOHN A. MCCONE REPLACED HIM LAST IN 1961, HAS QUESTIONED THE ACCURACY OF MUCH MATERIAL IN THE BOOK AND REFERRED TO IT AS THE UPSIDE-DOWN STORY.

IT ALSO IS REPORTED THAT SOME TOP GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS HAVE REQUESTED THEIR NAMES BE REMOVED FROM TULLY'S NOTE OF GRATITUDE FOR ASSISTANCE IN HIS WORK.

IN 276 PAGES, TULLY TELLS HOW CIA CAME INTO BEING AND DISCUSSES THE ROLE IT HAS PLAYED IN SUCH DISPUTED AFFAIRS AS THE U2 INCIDENT, THE ILL-FATED CUBAN INVASION, THE EFFORT TO SWING LAOS TO THE WEST.

1/9--JRL128AES